

TCCW Drama Workshop

We are very excited to announce that we are bringing a weekly drama workshop to TCCW!

It will run every Monday of Term 3, starting 10th January 2022.

The session will be for 45 minutes - The children will be collected from Hillcrest and have time for a snack & drink before the workshop begins and then they can stay and enjoy our home from home environment until 6pm. The workshop is included in the usual cost of our after school club sessions.

We're going to be exploring all kinds of activities, including imaginative drama games, improvisation, music and movement, making our own costumes, creative writing, as well as adapting our favourite books and stories into performances.

The workshops are for children aged 4-11 years old, will be suitable for different age ranges and confidence levels, and will focus on providing a supportive environment for the children to express their creativity.

To book a session please register and book via <https://tccw.schoolipal.co.uk/>
