

Part Time Deputy Play Manager

The Totterdown Children's Community Workshop (TCCW) is a charity that has provided a fun and nurturing place for children aged 4-11 to spend time after school and during the holidays. Our after-school club is a space for children to play or unwind after their day. During the holiday club, children have a great time with their friends, enjoying lots of activities and games. For more than 40 years we have been funded by parent/carer fees and we are overseen by a committed Management Committee made up of volunteer parents.

We are looking for a committed and passionate individual to join our small and friendly team, creating a fun and exciting play experience for children.

If this sounds like you, we'd love to hear from you.
